

K-Love is a positive influence in our community, with positive, family oriented music and news. We need a strong image that proves to our children that there are positive aspects to this world, and taking away our K-Love FM Station would rob us of a much needed influence. In a world that is so often seen as "going down the tubes", it is good to have something like K-Love to point to as an encouragement to seeing the positive side of life.